

RCP to Present at DealFlow LS Conference in Las Vegas on 10/3/10.

RCP executives will be featured presenters at The Life Settlements Conference 2010 being held October 3-5 at The Wynn Resort & Casino in Las Vegas. In addition to discussing New Market Entrants on Tuesday at 11.55am, RCP will be available to discuss their latest risk mitigation solutions at the exhibitor hall. Stop by and chat with executives about our latest risk mitigation solutions for life settlement transactions.

As market leaders for risk mitigation related to life settlements, RCP has developed coverage with highly rated (S&P rated 'A' or better) partner carriers to address investor concerns that would otherwise stymie a life settlement trade. Coverages have typically fallen into one of two broad categories: Title (insurable interest, contestability, rescission) and Mortality (principal protection, residual value, LE expectation).

Example coverages include: mortality/life expectancy cover - guaranteeing a minimum mortality result during a defined period of time over a portfolio of life settlements. Another innovative example is lender insurance - offering principal & interest protection for a premium financed insurance policy two years into the future at the time of a refinancing or potential sale into the secondary market.

The recently launched RCP Fund, domiciled in Luxembourg, provides a tax efficient way for investors to enter the longevity market with variable levels of participation and returns. The RCP Fund combines intelligent policy aggregation with innovative downside protection using principal protection and other longevity coverages offered by RCP insurance carrier partners.

With contacts in the US, London and Bermuda insurance markets, RCP is the leader in developing insurance based risk solutions for the life settlement marketplace. RCP's coverages enable life settlement transaction organizers to lower their costs of capital and provide investors with security and confidence about their involvement in an emerging asset class.
