About RCP

Risk Capital Partners (RCP) is a boutique insurance consultancy/brokerage specializing in developing new risk mitigation products for the life settlement industry. RCP maintains an extensive understanding of the economics associated with life policies, regulatory and legislative concerns, insurance industry sensitivities, and consumer rights. The Company's activities in the industry span over 10 years, working closely with key constituents including leading financing sources, providers, producers and insurance carriers (both Life and P&C). Our instrumental role in the development of successful life settlement transactions has not only benefited our clients but the industry at large.
